Real Solutions for Business Professionals, Educators, Community Members, EQ/ SEL Practitioners, and Support Staff

We're coming together to leverage our expertise in teaching and learning in order to fortify our resilience in the face of change and develop innovations that will enable us to meet the challenges of the future head-on!

Now is the time to give back and help strengthen our community. We're seeking individuals with expertise in the fields of emotional intelligence (EQ), social-emotional learning (SEL), mindfulness, education, leadership, and more to join Business Professionals, Community Members, Educators, and SEL practitioners for this event!

In today's dynamic work environment, employee development, connection with clients, team collaboration, and employee resilience are more important than ever. At our upcoming summit, we will focus on actionable solutions to help business professionals address the complex challenges that impact long-term employee satisfaction and mental health. Our speakers will share their expertise on topics such as emotional intelligence, relationship management, motivation, and conflict resolution, as well as other key skills necessary for success in the modern workplace. Join us as a speaker to share your insights and help fellow professionals navigate the path toward success in today's dynamic work landscape.

WHY SPONSOR THE EQuip to Achieve Summit?

Becoming an EQuip to Achieve Summit Sponsor puts your organization at the forefront of business professionals, educators, community members, administrators, and EQ/SEL practitioners to address the challenges of learning in today's complex environment. Summit Cohost/Partner/Sponsors understand that EQ is essential to life-long benefits. This is an opportunity to help share knowledge, stimulate dialogue, network, and discuss simple and practical real-world solutions.

We will cover topics on emotional intelligence, social-emotional learning, mindfulness, digital and remote learning, fostering relationships in a time of social distancing, and creative activities that you can do in the classroom, homeschool, or remote learning presently at home.

OPPORTUNITIES TO COLLABORATE

We are pleased to present the Collaboration Levels and Opportunities that follow for your consideration. Each level includes ways for your organization to be recognized as supporting EQ improvement and ways for your organization to engage more deeply with EQuip to Achieve Summit participants. If our Sponsorship Levels do not work for your organization, we would be delighted to customize the opportunities below to best meet your organization's strategy and activities.
